Finding a plan that meets your needs

We are all different, and what would suit one person can be quite unlike what another person wants.

We have designed 5 standard funeral plan packages which we know, from experience, cover most of the needs of the majority of people.

Each of these packages can be adapted to meet your exact requirements. If none of our packages looks like it addresses your own needs, we can always start from scratch and create a completely bespoke funeral plan tailored specifically to your wishes.

What is and what isn't included?

Find out how the costs of a funeral plan work, and discover what is fixed, what isn't, and whether there are any extras that you'll have to pay.

All funerals are made up of a variety of products and services that come together to form the funeral as a whole. This includes things such as the coffin, care of the body, and transport on the day. The majority of these are provided by, and carried out by, us (the Funeral Directors) and are included in all our pricing.

There are however, some aspects of a funeral that are carried out by, or provided by, third parties such as the Crematoria or Burial Grounds. We call the cost of these services 'Disbursements'.

The cost of any disbursements for your funeral could increase over time as the third parties change their fees. We guarantee that any money that you have set aside in your plan for disbursements will grow in line with the Trust's investments over the lifetime of the plan.

This gives you some protection against increasing disbursement costs.

Our Fixed Funeral Director Costs

Included in our price.

Disbursements (third-party services)

Included in price but may vary over time.

Please note - Pricing of all of our funeral plans clearly indicates which aspect is a fixed Funeral Director cost, and which is a Disbursement cost using the coloured icons above.

We offer two ways to pay – you choose what works best for you.

You choose how to pay. Either way your money is kept in a trust until the time of the funeral.

Your funds are set aside in an independent trust.

The Peace Ethical Trust was established in 2022. The Trust holds and invests funds that a person has set aside for his or her funeral.

There are many funeral planning organisations that offer a similar service. However, what makes Peace Ethical Trust distinctive is that they are driven by a desire to put their customers first and act ethically in everything they do. As such they are the first choice for all Peace Funerals plans.

Lump sum

Take advantage of today's prices and pay up-front in one lump sum.

Instalments

Spread the cost over a period of twelve months at no extra cost.

The importance of price and standards of service

We keep our prices as low as possible, without compromising our care.

If you are thinking about taking out a funeral plan, we would encourage you to shop around and find the provider that works best for you. We know that our plans are competitively priced and can be as much as £1000 less than similar plans from other providers.

Peace Funerals have a reputation for the support that we provide to families throughout South Yorkshire and North Derbyshire. In the words of the Good Funeral Guide, Peace Funerals are 'Probably everything you would want a funeral director to be'.

Fixed Funeral Director Costs Disbursement (Price follows CPI)

Please note - The funds in your plan set aside for Disbursement costs (services not provided by us) grow in line with the Consumer Price Index (CPI) over the lifetime of your plan. If the actual cost of the disbursements has grown by more than this at the time that the funeral is carried out, then the difference would be payable by the person organising the funeral. When there is such a balance payable, and often there isn't one, it should be relatively small in terms of the overall cost of the funeral.

There is a £500 difference between the at-need price and the equivalent funeral plan price. This includes the £250 admin fee and an inflation cushion.

All prices were correct at the time of printing – November 2023.

FAQ's

What happens if I die before I have fully paid for my funeral plan?

If you die before you have fully paid for your funeral plan, the amount that you have paid in, less the admin fee, will be available to go towards the cost of your chosen funeral.

Can I cancel a plan if it no longer meets my needs?

Yes. If you cancel within 30 days of taking out your funeral plan, you will get a full refund. If you cancel after that, you will get a full refund minus the plan admin fee (currently £250).

What is the Peace Ethical Trust and how is it linked to Peace Funerals?

Any organisation, like Peace Funerals, that provides funeral plans is required by law to make sure that their customers' monies have been set aside. One of the ways of doing this is to put the money into an independently managed Trust fund.

What happens to my plan money if Peace Funerals go out of business?

Because Peace Funerals doesn't hold your funeral plan money (it's held by the Peace Ethical Trust), in the unlikely event that Peace Funerals went out of business, your funds are unaffected and available to pay another funeral director to carry out your wishes.

Can the Peace Ethical Trust go out of business?

No. The Trust isn't a trading body – it just holds your money – and so cannot go out of business.
